

LONG BIO

Transformational Leader. Change agent. Thought guru. Author. Dionne Griffin McGee brings her insane energy and compelling empathy for those in leadership to her speaking, writing, and coaching roles. Her career, built on more than 20 years of corporate life, has included in excess of a decade in the executive suite. What she's learned there has been both painful and powerful. Those experiences have given her a special heart for those growing into leadership and has led her to a new identity—Coach Dee. Today, Dionne shares her hard-won wisdom to help individuals believe beyond their boundaries. Despite the challenges, late-night study, the demands of parenting while building a career, and countless setbacks, Dionne worked her way into leadership, eventually earning her place in the executive suite, where her innovative and visionary talents garnered greater revenue and success for her employers. It was in that same executive suite that she discovered the next season for her own growth and her dreams took on a new shape. Drawing on a wealth of life and work experiences, Dionne has developed a keen understanding of the power of leadership. She has made it her goal to embrace and engender that power in others. To that end, her first book was released in 2019 "Finding Your ROAR". She has had the good fortune to travel the country to inspire thousands to chase after their dreams and goals and not settle for the status quo. Her fresh tactics rekindle hope, and spark restoration. Dionne has brought her insane energy and fierce personality to her own company, DG McGee Enterprises (DGME). Being a seasoned executive, certified Project Manager, Scrum Master, and Six Sigma (Practitioner), Dionne has a voice curtailed to ignite a room and champion a company. DGME modifies the way individuals think by encouraging them to believe in what seems impossible, just as she did for herself. Through dynamic sessions of listening and learning, building cherished relationships, and participating in phenomenal instruction, clients will learn to live a harmonious life that exceeds expectations and embraces excellence. She earned her Bachelor of Science (B.S) from North Carolina Wesleyan, Rocky Mount NC. She is married to Corey McGee Sr., (Firefighter) and they have two beautiful children.
